3. Shri Prakash X. Querkar.

— Applicants

V/s.

1. M/s. Oberoi Hotel.

— Opponent

Opponent represented by Shri P. K. Lele, Labour Advisor.

Panaji. Dated: 1-2-1985.

AWARD

This is an application filed by the above applicants against the above opponent, under Section 33C(2) of the I.D.A., 1947, in short the Act, claiming from the opponent the total amount of Rs. 1,165/-.

2. It is applicants' case, that they were engaged by the Opponent for cane furniture repairs in the month of June 1983 upto 4th July 1983. It was agreed that they would be paid at the rate of Rs. 30/- per day plus travelling from Collem to Vasco and back railway train fare Rs. 11/-, plus afternoon meals per day, per head. Advances were received only for the purpose of raw material viz., cane wire, canes and nails etc. The total amount due to them is Rs. 1,165/-, which amount they have claimed.

3. The Opponent, in its written statement, has raised a preliminary objection in respect of the existence of employer employee relationship between the Opponent and any of the applicants. In the absence of such relationship, the application under Section 33C(2) of the Act would not be maintainable.

On the merits, it is contended that the job was given on contract basis to the applicant No. 1, Shri Radey Kamat, who runs a business of making and repairing cane-furniture under the name and caption of Radey Kamat, repairers of Cane furniture at Station road, Collem. After mutual negotiations, applicant No. 1 undertook to do the job on contract. As the items could not be transported to the site of the shop of the applicant No. 1, it was agreed to carry out the work in the Opponent's establishment. The applicant No. 1, undertook to supply material and engage skilled workers for carrying out the said repair work. The Opponent undertook to reimburse the cost of the actual material used by him at the market price and also reimburse him with Rs. 25/- per day for the work put in by every skilled worker engaged by the contractor. They also undertook to reimburse the travelling expenses at specific rates to be incurred by him for bringing the workers from Collem to Bogmalo Beach Hotel. In addition, the Opponent also undertook to give afternoon meals to the contractor's persons during the period they would work at the Hotel. Accordingly, the contractor started his work and raised a bill on 16-6-1983 for certain work carried out by him till then. This bill was immediately settled after adjusting the advances paid to the contractor. Even after the settlement of this bill and as the work was in progress, further advances were made to the contractor from time to time against his future bills, as per the agreed terms of the contract. On completion of the contractual work, the contractor raised his final bill both for material used and persons engaged by him for carrying out the work of repairing cane furniture as per the terms of contract. At this time, there was some difference of opinion between the contractor and the executives of the opponent on the quantum of material used by the contractor and also by the kind of persons engaged by him. As a result of this difference of opinion, the final bill has remained unsettled though the Opponents have always been willing to settle the same after negotiations. The contractor, however, preferred to come to this court for the settlement of this bill. It is submitted that the dispute is not for payment of wages or remuneration to the applicant No. 1, who was never engaged for wages by the Opponent, but for non settlement of contractual money to an independent contractor and, therefore, the claim is beyond the scope of Section 33C(2) of the Act and as such the Labour Court has no jurisdiction to entertain this claim.

4. The applicant filed his rejoinder and, thereafter, the following issues were framed:

"1. Whether each of the applicants prove that there were Employer-Employee relations between the employer and each of the applicants, so as to justify the jurisdiction of this Court to entertain this application?

2. In the affirmative, whether each of the applicants prove that they are entitled to the amounts claimed?

3. Whether the Opponents prove that the work done by the applicants was under a contract entered into between the Opponent and Radey Kamat only?"

5. On the above issues, the applicant No. 1, gave his statement in Open Court and was cross examined by the Ld. Rep. of the Opponent. Before further evidence was led in this case, both the parties arrived at an amicable settlement, the terms of which were filed before the Court and prayed that a consent award be passed accordingly.

6. The terms of settlement are as follows:

"1. The Opponent, M/s. Hotel Oberoi Hotel, Bogmalo Beach agree to pay all the three applicants together a sum of Rs. 1,050/- (Rupees One Thousand fifty Only) as full and final payment of whatsoever claims they have against the Opponent.

2. In view of this consideration on the part of the Opponent, all the three applicants agree to accept the above sum as full and final payment of their claims against the Opponent.

3. The applicants further agree that in view of the receipt of the above sum referred to in term (1) of this settlement, they have now no claims of whatsoever nature against the Opponent, including claims arising out of present application before the Hon'ble Labour Court.

4. Both the parties agree to file this settlement before the Hon'ble Labour Court with a request that the Hon'ble Labour Court may be pleased to pass orders in the present application in terms of this settlement."

7. I have duly considered the above terms, which do justice to both the parties and, hence, I accept them and pass the following order:

ORDER

Consent Award in terms of the above settlement is hereby made and the application is disposed off accordingly. No order as to costs.
